THE EAGLE

In Los Angeles, Baldwin Hill Reservoir cracked, then broke releasing a torrent which wrecked hundreds of evacuated homes, but produced few casualties.

Sandy Koufax won two as the Los Angeles Dodgers beat the Yankees four straight for the world championship. At year's end, Koufax was named the league's Most Valuable Player. Right: James Whittaker of Redmond, Washington, became the first American to reach the top of Mt. Everest.

National Events

Quints were born in Aberdeen, S. D., and in Venezuela in the same week. Here two of the American quintts pose for pictures before going home.

Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas took office immediately following President Kennedy's death and affirmed his intention of continuing the foreign and domestic policies of his predecessor.

Leaking gas exploded during the finale of an ice show in Indianapolis, killing and injuring many others.

Ransomed for $240,000, Frank Sinatra, Jr. returned home safely two days after being kidnaped and posed with his sister Tina, left, and his mother, Mrs. Nancy Sinatra.

n Review—1963

With the assassination of John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, youngest president in U.S. history, the country lost a highly-regarded and remarkably capable statesman and administrator.

President DeGaulle of France, saluting, stands with German Chancellor Erhard, right, and President Lübke, as some heads of state gathered in tribute to the late President Kennedy.

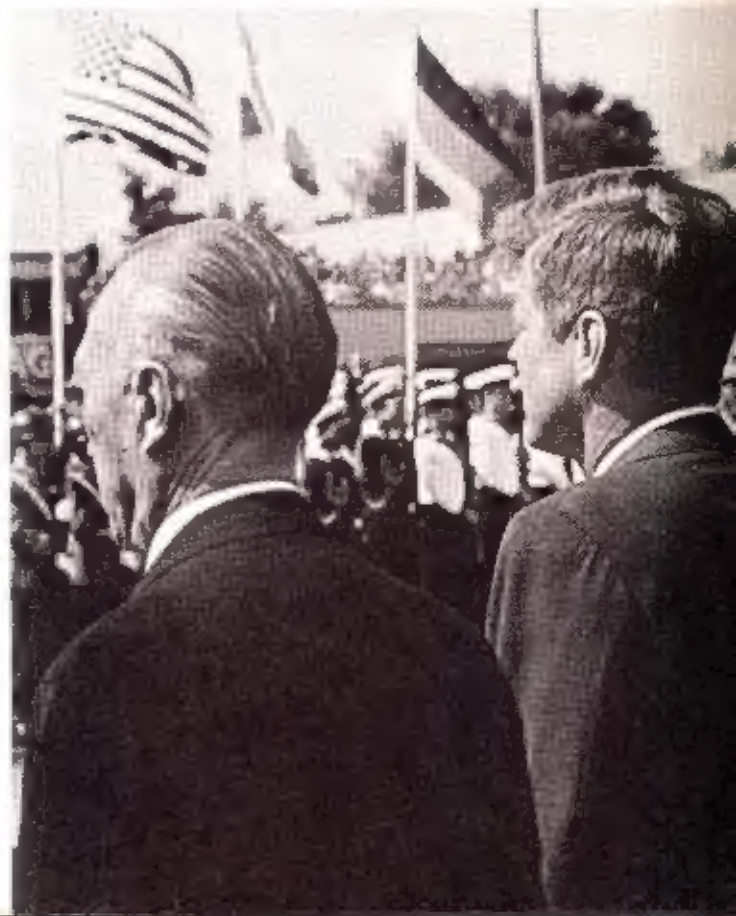

President Kennedy, and soon-to-be-retired, German Chancellor Adenauer met in Bonn during Kennedy's successful ten-day tour of Western Europe.

President Kennedy and then Vice-President Johnson (second from right) met with leaders of the August "March on Washington" dramatizing the nation's leading domestic issue in 1963.

Major Gordon Cooper received the Distinguished Service Medal from President Kennedy at the White House in May, following Cooper's 22 orbit flight and manually controlled re-entry.

Mike
to I want you are my dearest friend (opposite sex, that is) and I always will be. Boy, when I think about the good times we've had over the phone I just die laughing.
I'll always remember that Halloween.
Right. I'd give a nickel to do that again.
It was so much fun. Please be sweet and of "old fuddy" once in a while.
Love ya lots
Betty

It has been a lots of fun knowing you these past two years. I hope our friendships will last forever, and, ever, and ever,
and ever, and ever again.
Good luck always. Your ole pal
David

Well Mike,

never be able to write anything as nice to say to a nice fellow like you. But ~~that's~~ luck always.

Dear Mike,
It is in your handwriting
to write in your handwriting
you are my friend
our friendship
I'll be yours Mike. You truly deserve it. I do love from your friend
Jeri

Dear Mike, (my little brother) I'll never forget you and the wonderful times we have had together - church, camp, parties aboard, etc. Remember our trips to Little Rock? Those energy rides and the minor house - they go down in my memories as extra special.
May the best of everything
be yours Mike. You truly deserve it. I do love from your friend
Jeri

Dedication

The 1964 Seniors proudly dedicate THE EAGLE to Mrs. Marcelle Martin, 7th and 8th grades home room teacher.

Mrs. Martin, a native of Willisville, came to McNeil in 1950, when her husband began teaching at McNeil High.

In 1959, Mrs. Martin began teaching and has taught here ever since that time. This year she is teaching Shorthand and Typing I and II. She is also doing a good job as librarian.

Mrs. Martin is always ready to lend a helping hand to her students. She is an out-standing woman; a woman each of us, as students admire. For these and many other admirable traits we wish her the very best.

Mrs. Marcelle Martin

U. S. Congressional leaders. Right photo: Red Chinese-Ru worsened during the year as they battled for leadership of war. This Moscow meeting between Mikhail Suslov, left, and Teng August failed to produce accord.

An unidentified priest went to the aid of a wounded soldier during a revolt in Venezuela. For this picture Hector Rondon won the 1963 Pulitzer Prize for news photography.

World Events in Review—1963

Pope Paul VI began his reign after the death of Pope John XXIII. Pope Paul reconvened the Ecumenical Council and at year's end planned an unprecedented journey to the Holy Land.

Left, below: Dr. Helge Ingstad, veteran Norwegian explorer found remains of a 9-house Viking settlement in Newfoundland dating 500 years before Columbus. Right: A huge landslide into Vaiont Reservoir in northern Italy sent a wall of water into the valley below destroying Longarone and killing some 3,000 people.

A new island, 1/4 mile long and 130 feet high, was born off southern Iceland from an underwater volcano.

Britain's new prime minister, Sir Alec Douglas-Home, took office in November, after scandals shook Harold Macmillan's government.

East-West tension continued: left, Gen. Chong of North Korea levels a pistol at U.N. spokesmen during discussions of armistice-violating raids at Panmunjom. Right; Russian attempts to control Allied access to Berlin failed in the face of western unity. This American convoy had been delayed 42 hours en route to the city.
